Tropical Warm Wishes & Merry Christmas from Panamá!

Ministry Report ~ by Kirk

Rio Sereno KidsQuest Crusade, 9/23-25/05

Our host church, Templo Rocío de Hermón, did great preparation--from the first pre-meeting, to the banner over "Main Street," to the terrific team of helpers.

Praise

Missionettes from our Southern California District blessed us with their Dimes to Dollars project fund. Just over $10,000 was given to remodel our ministry truck and to support construction at the Duíma LACC School. We'll provide a complete update next issue.

The total three day attendance was 613, with a high mark of 480 on Sunday.

In case you don't receive our monthly e-Mailers, I invite you to see this Crusade's video report on our website Media page.

Samaria KidsQuest Crusade, 11/11-13/05

This crusade was held in a "red zone" of San Miguelito, known for high crime and poverty. Total attendance was 450; high of 175 on Sunday.

Pastor Edgehill's grandson, Isaac, won first place in the visitor campaign. Afterward his grandmother told me that he woke up yelling out, "My prize! My prize!" dreaming of the radio-controlled car that he won later that day!

Prayer

KidsQuest Christmas Crusade in a San Miguelito soccer stadium on 10 December.

Upcoming

We'll minister with our Minister's Kids and Grandkids at their retreat 16-18 December. Then we'll see many of them again in January for the Annual Session.

Thanks for another year of faithful praying and giving in support of our ministry to Panamá's kids. We deeply appreciate your sacrifice of love.

Family Report ~ by Yvonne

We enjoyed a delicious traditional Thanksgiving meal with our AG Missionary Families the Bells and the Boyds. Kids still had school half day--it's not a holiday here. We'll celebrate an intimate Family Christmas this year.

Chloe provided the comic relief playing the part of mental patient "Renfield" in her school's fall drama production. Anthony was thrilled to see Dad back from his latest trip--not because he missed him, but because he got a new distortion pedal for his guitar. Celina continues to expand her artistic horizons and will play Mary in this year's Christmas program. Gracie is in a Fine Arts choir and loves singing Christmas carols, she says, "because they're all about Jesus."
